Answers To The Mystery Of

Best Answer: "There is a belief that after a man departs from the world he is gone forever. There is another viewpoint that he is born again, that even after death man does not die in the real sense but remains on a subtle plane with his subtle body, and only the outer physical garment is discarded; and that is called death.

Some skeptics in the modern period doubted the Church of the Holy Sepulchre contained Christ's tomb or the remains of Calvary because the Holy Sepulchre is located within the walls of Old Jerusalem. That's problematic, because the Gospels say Jesus was taken outside the city, and Hebrews 13:12 even says that Jesus "suffered outside the gate" or the entrance of Jerusalem.

The Mystery of the Two Tombs | Catholic Answers

Why do Christians say the Our Father (the "Lord's Prayer") slightly differently? Catholics conclude with "deliver us from evil," whereas most Protestants, following Matthew 6:13 in the King James Version, go on to say something like, "For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever."

The answer is never the answer. What's really interesting is the mystery. If you seek the mystery instead of the answer, you'll always be seeking. I've never seen anybody really find the answer, but they think they have. So they stop thinking. But the job is to seek mystery, evoke mystery, plant a garden in which strange plants grow and mysteries bloom.
